

ISO 9001 INTERNAL AUDITOR TRAINING

STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY, in partnership with the CYPRESS GROUP, is pleased to offer this course as part of our extensive Quality Management training program. A key element of a successful Quality System is its ability to be self-correcting through Internal Quality Audits. This process ensures that all the parts of the Quality System fit together.

Course Title: ISO 9001 Internal Auditor Training

Fee: $550

Course Description:

This course presents the Quality System in action. The first day includes: ISO 9001 interpretation, audit procedures, auditor skills and pre-audit preparation using your own procedures. On the second day, the group is separated into auditing teams that are facilitated by Cypress personnel. Actual audits will be performed and the teams will present their findings to management.

Each team completes an audit report that can initiate the Corrective and Preventive Action process. This training accomplishes not only content knowledge, but completes several actual Internal Audits.

Objective:

This seminar provides training in practices, methods, and techniques for ISO9001 quality system internal audits.

Length:                      16 Hours

Content:

Quality System Structure	Nonconformance Definitions
ISO 9001 Series	Objective Evidence
Audits	Documentation
Auditors	Day of the Audit
Internal Audit	Audit Report
Audit Techniques	Follow Up
