

Stony Brook University Corporate Education & Training

Vice President for Economic Development

For Mid-level and Upper-level Executives

Executive MBA

The Stony Brook Executive MBA is a two year, 48-hour-credit program designed for mid- to upper-level executives. It is designed as a management development program for promising managers whom their companies want to develop for greater responsibility. All students in the program must be sponsored by their employers and must have at least 5-7 years of business experience.

Classes Forming Fall 2007!

The program focuses on leadership, teamwork, innovation, strategy and managing processes that are critical to success in a broad spectrum of industries. The Executive MBA assists students to develop leadership skills and advance their careers by recognizing ways in which they can add value to their firms.

Courses include: Managerial Economics, Data Analysis and Decision Making, Financial Accounting, Marketing, Finance, Leadership, Teamwork and Communications, Technological Innovations, Operations Management, Ethics and Law, Organizational Behavior, International Management, Organizational Change and Development, Project Management, Quality Management and Business Strategy. Classes will be held at the conveniently located at our new location: the Jack Dye Center in Hauppauge, right off the LI Expressway. Classes will be scheduled on Tuesday evenings and alternating Fridays and Saturdays.

Call 631-632-8433 to schedule an information session at your company.

To register and for course details: www.sunysb.edu/sbucet

Courses held at

Stony Brook University Center for Emerging Technologies

Jack Dye Center, Hauppauge, New York

For a complete library of our course offerings:

www.sunysb.edu/sbucet
631-632-8433

Choose Stony Brook as your partner in workforce training and development.

STONY BROOK
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK