

Stony Brook University Corporate Education and Training

Certificate Program in Business Analysis

According to the International Institute of Business Analysis (IIBA), Business Analysis is the set of tasks, knowledge, and techniques required to identify business needs and determine solutions to business problems. In many ways, successful Business Analysis is the key to project success. The certificate program in Business Analysis from Stony Brook University requires the completion of a core set of workshops, which enable participants to fulfill the role in a variety of organizational settings and environments.

Business Analysis Certificate	BA 011	Determining Business Requirements	2 days
	BA 021	Creating Functional Specifications	1 day
	BA 022S	Data Gathering	2 days
	BA 042	Structured Testing	2 days
	SBU 101	Career Workshop	4 hours
	SBU 103	Job Search Round Table	2 hours
		Total

All levels of Business Professionals, including but not limited to:

Who Should Attend

Project Leaders	Requirements Analyst
Business Consultant	Marketing Consultant
Planner	Engineers
Architect	Operations Managers
Construction Manager	IT Professionals
Business Analyst	Systems Developers

Stony Brook University

Corporate Education and Training Center for Emerging Technologies

www.licet.org | sbucet@stonybrook.edu | 631.632.8347

