

Stony Brook University Corporate Education and Training

Certificate Program in Project Management

Today's global workplace offers tremendous opportunities in project management. In this extremely competitive environment, skilled Project Managers are in high demand. The Certificate in Project Management from Stony Brook University offers participants a wide range of courses to expand their skill and knowledge, and will prove to be a valuable asset, providing a significant career edge. The practical courses offered enable each project manager to acquire and hone industry wide best-practices in all areas of their profession. This certificate is designed to cover the full range of Project Management and Communication skills.

Project Management Certificate	PM 001	Project Planning and Control	3 days
	PM 015	Project Management Exam Prep	2 days
	PM 007	Microsoft Project – Introduction	1 day
	PM 008	Microsoft Project – Advanced	1 day
	SBU 101	Career Workshop	3 hours
	SBU 103	Job Search Round Table	2 hours
	Total		7.5 Days

Anyone who leads or directs programs, projects, or parts of projects, including but not limited to:

Who Should Attend

Project Leaders	Marketing Manager
Project Managers	Engineer (ME, EE, etc.)
Senior Leaders	Operations Manger
Strategic Planner	CPA
Auditor	General Contractor Architect
IT Professional	Manufacturing Specialist
Construction Manager	Systems Developer
Business Analyst

Stony Brook University

Corporate Education and Training Center for Emerging Technologies

www.licet.org | sbucet@stonybrook.edu | 631.632.8347

